

Directions to the Refuge Parking Lot Wapack National Wildlife Refuge

The refuge maintains a parking lot on Old Mountain Road in Greenfield, NH. A short spur trail leads from the parking lot to the Wapack Trail. The parking lot (and refuge) is open from sunrise to sunset. GPS coordinates for the parking lot are: LAT. 42.900232 LON. -71.875058.

Westbound on Rt. 101 from Temple toward Peterborough:

West on Rt. 101 over the top of Temple Mountain. After the passing lane ends at the top of the hill, do not turn into the Miller State Park parking lot. Instead, continue 0.4 mile to the first right (Old Mountain Road, Peterborough), and turn right. Proceed 0.6 mile to a three-way intersection, and bear right onto East Mountain Road. Proceed about 2.8 miles until road ends at Sand Hill Road. Turn right. Proceed 1.6 miles, including a sharp left curve and a sharp right curve, until you see the parking lot on the south side of the road. (Road changes its name to Old Mountain Road in Greenfield.)

Southbound on Rt. 202/Rt. 123 from Hancock:

Follow Rt. 202/Rt. 123 south past the turnoff for Rt. 136 north (on the left). Continue on Rt. 202/Rt. 123 south for 1.0 mile past the turnoff for Rt. 136, and turn left onto the first left (Sand Hill Road). Proceed 3.9 miles, including a sharp left curve (at about 2.6 miles) and a sharp right curve (at about 3.0 miles), until you see the parking lot on the south side of the road.

Eastbound on Rt. 101 from Dublin or northbound on Rt. 202 from Jaffrey:

Proceed into Peterborough where Rt. 202 north and Rt. 101 east come together at the traffic light, and take the next left onto Rt. 202 north/Rt. 123 north. Proceed 1.1 miles and bear right onto Sand Hill Road. Proceed 3.9 miles, including a sharp left curve (at about 2.6 miles) and a sharp right curve (at about 3.0 miles), until you see the parking lot on the south side of the road.

Northbound on Rt. 123 from Sharon and New Ipswich:

Where Rt. 123 meets Rt. 101, turn left onto Rt. 101 west. Proceed 1.1 miles to junction of Rtes. 101, 202, and 123. Turn right onto Rt. 202 north/Rt. 123 north. Proceed 1.1 miles and bear right onto Sand Hill Road. Proceed 3.9 miles, including a sharp left curve (at about 2.6 miles) and a sharp right curve (at about 3.0 miles), until you see the parking lot on the south side of the road.
